John Edwards, NC

With reference to the above report, please be advised that the sum of the entries on Schedule A, Line 11(a) do equal the amount of $499,230.50 disclosed on the detailed summary page. It appears that page 25 of 28 was missing from the FEC filed copy. Enclosed herein, please find page 25.

Also, please be advised that the Committee did not receive excessive contributions. The two contributions you highlighted in your letter are from candidate committees. Please refer to 113.2(c) which states that a candidate committee may transfer unlimited excess campaign funds to a national political party.

Your letter states the Committee discloses a contribution from an organization which is not a political committee registered with the Commission. The correct name of this PAC is National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors at the same address as shown on page 6 of Line 11(c). This PAC's identification number is C00005249.

Enclosed please find our amended April Monthly Report clarifying "Consulting/Profess. Service" on our H4 schedules.

If you require further information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

James P. Fox
